

Are you protecting your pupils and teaching staff?

Our 1-day in-house Positive Handling training course is designed for any educational staff who work with children and young people. The training course in Positive Handling was developed considering the physical intervention and de-escalation needs in schools and is delivered nationally in both primary and secondary schools settings.

Learning Outcomes -Your staff will learn:

- Diffusion and De-Escalation strategies for disruptive pupils.
- DfE Guidance on “The Use of Reasonable Force with Pupils”.
- Integrated non-contact and contact graduated incident flow.
- Inherent risks of a restrictive intervention and how to reduce them.
- Health & Safety considerations “Duty of Care”.
- Non-harmful and least intrusive approaches to control a child at risk to themselves or others.

Who should attend our Positive Handling Training Course?

- Heads
- Deputy Heads
- Teaching Staff
- Support Staff
- School Site Staff

Richard Morgan is an accredited Positive Handling trainer, trained through the Positive Handling Academy and an experienced Teaching Assistant.
